Local Licensed Ministers Church Delegates United Pentecostal Church of Jamaica

Truly God has been faithful and He knoweth them that trust in Him.

We give thanks unto Him for his faithfulness and for allowing us the strength to see yet another year. What joy it will be when once again we gather to fellowship with our brothers and sisters in Christ at another Annual National Conference.

The 73rd National Conference of the United Pentecostal Church of Jamaica will be held over the period, March 4-7, 2019 at the UPCJ Multi-Purpose Complex, St. Ann. As customary, the Qualifying Committee will continue to assist in the smooth flow of the business sessions at this Conference – the highest decision making forum of the organization – by interviewing the relevant individuals the day before the start of the official business session. We therefore invite all Local Licensed Ministers and Church Delegates, who will participate in the 73rd Annual Business Sessions (Tuesday & Thursday – March 5 & 7), to attend an interview at the times outlined below. This meeting will be held on Monday, March 4, 2019 in the Auditorium at the UPCJ Multi-Purpose Complex, Moneague, St. Ann. The specified times are:

Delegates: 3:30 - 5:00 pm
Local Licensed Ministers: 4:00 - 6:00 pm

You are being cautioned that no interviews will be conducted on Tuesday morning, as this usually cause hiccups in the start of the business session. For the past two years, a few ministers were accommodated on the Tuesday morning, due to extenuating circumstances beyond their control, which were documented and proven.
